ARUL ANANDAR COLLEGE

Arul Anandar College (Autonomous), a Minority Catholic Co-Educational Institution, affiliated to the Madurai Kamaraj University, is one among the nine colleges, run by the Madurai Province of the Society of Jesus.

(The other Jesuit colleges in Tamil Nadu are:

In Tiruchirapalli:
   St Joseph’s College (Autonomous)

In Palayamkottai:
   St Xavier’s College (Autonomous)
   St Xavier’s College of Education (Autonomous)

In Chennai:
   Loyola College (Autonomous)
   Loyola College of Education
   Loyola ICAM College of Engineering & Technology (LICET)

In Vettavalam:
   Loyola College

In Mettala, Salem:
   Loyola College.

These nine higher educational institutions are under the chairmanship of the Provincial of the Jesuit Madurai Province follow a common policy for admissions, appointments and administration.)

As a minority institution Arul Anandar College caters primarily to the formation of Christian students. However, it keeps its portals open to all students without discrimination of caste and creed.
VISION
Integrated Development of Rural Students and Empowering them for Social Transformation

MISSION
- To provide facilities for academic excellence, training in soft and professional skills and job placement
- To enable students to become agents of social transformation by imparting skills in research and social analysis
- To build AAC into a policy advocacy centre

STRATEGY
- Empowering rural students through innovative and socially contextualized education
- Fostering a sense of human rights founded on dignity, equity and justice
- Initiating ICT integrated socially relevant research
- Promoting people-friendly policies and programmes through net-working
- Establishing an organic link between lab and land
- Facilitating gender equity both on and off the campus
- Promoting stakeholder participation in academic and extension activities

EMBLEM
A shield divided diagonally by a bar of gold appears on a maroon background.

On the right lower panel, a silver star rises above and lights up the green hills, the sky being shown in light blue, stands for a pioneering institution shedding its light on the neighbouring countryside.

On the left upper panel, a sheaf of paddy stands for agricultural plenty which the college aims at by its ideal of rural service.

A golden crest IHS with a cross and nails surmounts the shield. The Crest (IHS: the name of Jesus) is the emblem of the Society of Jesus which owns this college.

On the left, a palm frond flanks the shield signifying the sacrifice made by the patron of our college, the Martyr St John de Britto (Arul Anandar) in the cause of Truth and Justice.

At the bottom is found the motto of the college - Work, Justice and Love - inscribed in dark blue on a golden scroll.

Following this motto, AAC strives to bring about social transformation, in the rural neighbourhood through its ideal of loving service flowing from the humanity of Jesus Christ.

The colours Gold, Blue and Maroon stand for the ideals of Work, Justice and Love contained in the motto. Arul Anandar College professes a philosophy of hard work coupled with a passion for truth, justice and love especially of the marginalized.

OUR FOUNDER: ST IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

St Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus was born in Spain in 1491 in a noble family. While undergoing treatment for an injury sustained in the battle at Pamplona, he read the Gospel and the Lives of Saints, that changed his life. Later he studied Philosophy and Theology and was ordained a priest in 1537. With a band of a few well-educated friends, he laid the foundation of the Society of Jesus in 1540. The Spiritual Exercises and The Constitutions of the Society of Jesus are two of his legacy to the Jesuits and the world at large. The former helps to reflect on God, Self, and the relevance of the mission of Jesus Christ to the world inviting every one to become woman and man for others; and, the latter contains the rules and regulations for the governance of the Society of Jesus.

OUR PATRON: ST ARUL ANANDAR

St Arul Anandar (St John de Britto), is the Patron of our college. Born in Lisbon in 1647 in a wealthy and aristocratic family and brought up in a rich and royal atmosphere, he became a Jesuit and volunteered to come to India in September 1673. He is one of the many Jesuit Missionaries who worked in the Madurai Mission, India. Brilliant and young Britto was offered a professorial chair at a college in Goa but he preferred to come to Madurai and work in the interior villages. Between 1675 and 1687 he dressed himself as an Indian sannyasi (Pandaraswamy). He was known as Arulanandarsamy, eating only vegetarian food on plantain leaf, and squatting on the floor for study and teaching. He entered the kingdom of the Maravas, the present Ramanathapuram and Sivagangai districts and began his work there. Great opposition, resistance and persecution were his rewards, which he faced with a gentle smile. He had the courage to condemn the wrong doings of both the mighty and the lowly. The conversion of Prince Thadiya Thevar incensed his enemies to persecute him and he was beheaded at Oriyur on February 4, 1693. His very name ‘Arul Anandar’ means one who is filled with the grace and joy of the Lord which he manifested by his service to humanity and perseverance in suffering. He continues to inspire all through his dedication, devotion and determination, exhibiting grace and joy.

ARul Anandar Initiatives for Social Education (ARISE)
A one-credit extension programme outside the class hours and outside the campus is to be undertaken during the Semester III and Semester IV.

ARISE links lab with land. It signifies Pattikattai Noki Palkalai Kalagam (University to the Villages).

Established in 1995 by Rev. Dr Michael Dass D L SJ, this programme ARISE involves collaboration with Voluntary Organizations, Government officials and the local leaders. The initiatives provide an opportunity to the students to reach out to the people. With the knowledge and the skill gathered, the students are to animate people and help them to develop themselves by mobilizing the locally available resources.
National Cadet Corps (NCC)
Among the several wings such as Army, Navy, Airwing, Armoured Squadron etc, our college has only Army unit. Our unit is called 7/14 Arul Anandar College and is attached to 14 (TN) BN NCC, Dindigul. A maximum of 120 students drawn from the three years, serve as members of our NCC unit. Thus, 40 students may get enrolled in to NCC every year.

Students may be part of the NCC programmes for maximum period of three years. At the end of the second year, he/she can participate at the B - Certificate Examination and at the end of the third year he can pariticipate at the C - Certificate Examination.

To gain two credits, a student has to be in NCC for a minimum period of two years.

NCC provides opportunities to participate at several types of camps including the Republic Day Parade in New Delhi.

National Service Scheme (NSS)
To obtain two credits, a student has to carry-out during the first four semesters the several programmes as suggested by the programme-officer of the unit concerned. The programmes conducted in and through NSS are mainly development-oriented. They are designed in such a way to promote a sense of social concern. They aim at developing leadership qualities among the students.

NSS at AAC has six units, each headed by a programme-officer and all the units function under a co-ordinator. A maximum of 100 students can become members of each unit.

Awards are given by the Government and the University to the staff members and the students exhibiting excellent performance.

Physical Education (PE)
In collaboration with the Department of Physical Education of AAC, the Co-ordinator of Physical Education conducts a course on the rules and regulations of at least three games. The entire programme, including a two-day trekking venture lasts for 90 working days in the first four semesters. This programme carries two credits. A maximum of 90 students can become members from each year.

Youth Red Cross (YRC)
The Co-ordinator of the YRC essentially conducts health-related programmes such as First Aid Training, Gold Hour of Life-Saving Mission, Blood Donation, AIDS Awareness Programmes, Awareness on Organ Donation etc. This programme lasts for 90 working days in the first four semesters, and carries two credits. A maximum of 75 students can become members from each year.

ROTARACT
The Co-ordinator of the ROTARACT conducts programmes for the betterment of the society. Obtaining donations and suggestions from well-wishers, the ROTARACT members help the needy by provide to the most-deserving, the much required things for immediate use. They further participate at many awareness programmes such as Use of Helmet, Planting of Trees, Campaigning for Hygiene Maintenance etc. A maximum of 75 students can become members from each year. This programme lasts for 90 working days in the first four semesters, and carries two credits.

All India Catholic University Federation (AICUF)
The AICUF functions with the view to empowering all involved towards the liberation of the entire humanity, irrespective of caste, gender, language, belief etc. It offers opportunities to have critical awareness and analysis of the society and thus creating a deep and genuine concern for the oppressed and the marginalised. A maximum of 100 students can become members from each year. This programme lasts for 90 working days in the first four semesters, and carries two credits.
Nature Club (NC)
The Co-ordinator of the Nature Club organizes programmes such as Greening and Cleaning the Campus, Trekking, environmental exercises involving study of the resources available, emphasizing in the meanwhile the care to be taken in the utilization of the depletable resources. In the college campus, they seek to enforce the segregation of the waste, using four-coloured dust-bins, one for plastic, one for iron and glass materials, one for paper and the last for perishable items. A maximum of 60 students can become members from each year. This programme lasts for 90 working days in the first four semesters, and carries two credits.

Women Studies Centre (WSC)
Established in 2009, the WSC offers a two-credit Non-Major Elective titled Introduction to Gender Studies in Semester III to the UG Students. The WSC seeks to disseminate information relating to gender-based issues to women students.
SCHEME OF VALUATION

All the papers (UG / PG and Theory / Practical) carry an Internal Component and External Component, each having 100 marks.

The Passing Minimum:
For UG courses: 40% for external and 40% in the aggregate
For PG courses: 45% for external and 50% in the aggregate

SUMMATIVE INTERNAL ASSESSMENT: UG COURSES

College-Organized Component
Two college-organized tests: each of $1\frac{1}{2}$ hours duration, and each carrying 40 marks, thus, accounting for 80 marks.

Department-Organized Component
A test of the form such as Assignment, Quiz, Seminar etc. at the initiative of the course-teacher or of the department, carrying 20 marks.

END SEMESTER ASSESSMENT: UG COURSES

Theory: Question-Paper Setting

Part I

Part II

Part III

External Examiners set the question papers.

Part IV

Part V

Respective Course-Teachers set the question papers.

Practical: The question paper is set by the External examiner and the Course Teacher jointly. Valuation also will be done jointly.

Valuation: Single valuation by the Course Teacher - Twenty per cent of the valued scripts are scrutinized by the Chairman.

NB-01: In case of more than one course teacher, the course-coordinator sets the question paper.
NB-02: Value Education is given through four courses, each in a semester. A student has to pass in the examination conducted for each paper. At the end of Semester-II and Semester-IV, The student gets a credit each. Thus value education gets two credits.

NB-03: Part V

Semester I - Bridge Course carries 1 credit

Semesters III & IV - ARISE carries 1 credit

Semesters I to IV - A student gets at the end of Semester-II and Semester-IV, a credit each as he/she fulfills the requirements of the following courses such as NCC, NSS, Physical Education, YRC, ROTARACT, AICUF, Nature Club. Thus, through participation at the Value Education programmes a student gets two credits.

Self Learning Courses: End semester examination only

The Course-Teacher sets the Question Paper and values the answer scripts. Each Self Learning Course carries three credits.

Transparency: UG Students have an opportunity to verify their answer scripts on a day assigned.

SUMMATIVE INTERNAL ASSESSMENT: PG COURSES

College-Organized Component

Two college-organized tests: each of $1^{1/2}$-hours duration, and each carrying 40 marks, thus, accounting for 80 marks.

Department-Organized Component

A test of the form such as Assignment, Quiz, Seminar etc. at the initiative of the course-teacher or of the department, carrying 20 marks.

END SEMESTER ASSESSMENT: PG COURSES

Theory: External Examiners set the question papers.

Practical: The question paper is set by the External examiner and the Course Teacher jointly. Valuation also will be done jointly.
Valuation: Double valuation, one by the external examiner and the other by the respective course teacher - The Chairman of the respective Board of Examiners consolidates the marks obtained.
