Catalyst Education has been conducting mock tests for bank exams in various colleges including S Vellaichamy Nadar College Nagamalai, PKN Arts and Science College Thirunagadam, Arul Anandar College Sekkanoorani and Saraswathi Narayanan College Perungudi.

Basil Xavier

Dr S Alagarnathan, principal of SVN College, says, "We provide special coaching classes for some of the competitive exams. Our college and Catalyst education jointly conducted mock tests for bank exams on August 14 on our college premises. This test replicates the exact content of the actual bank exam model. Based on the performance in the mock test, we provide free coaching classes to the toppers."

"The model exams that are being conducted by them are the need of the hour as it helps the student gear up for the real tests. Students are given proper introduction about competitive examinations. The exam pattern, selection of questions and other techniques used by institute guides the students who attend the competitive exams, to be ready and be confident, says Dr M Kamman, principal of Saraswathi Narayanan College.

Dr S Basil Xavier SJ, principal of Arul Anandar College, says, "Students from rural colleges have got a lot of innate potential, and if we channelise that in the right direction and guide them with the right approach and the appropriate set of competitive courses, they will be able to reach greater heights in their careers. At the same time, we need to create awareness among the students about the changes in the pattern of the bank exams."

Dr K Jeyakodi, dean of Student's Extension program at Saraswathi Narayanan College adds,

A coaching class in progress in one of the colleges

"We are happy with the services that are being offered to the students by Catalyst Education. We appreciate their efforts. The methodology followed by this institute in preparing students for competitive exams is very interesting. We wish them success in all their endeavours."
