

Protection of Minors and Vulnerable Adults from Sexual Abuse and Maltreatment

The Ignatian principle of “Cura Personalis” (Care of Individual) has driven the Society of Jesus to formulate a policy of protecting the minors and safeguarding the vulnerable adults with the aim of setting standards and procedures for creating a safe environment against all forms of maltreatment in all Jesuit institutions. The following members are entrusted with the responsibilities of fulfilling the objectives of the policy at AAC campus for the tenure of 3 years.
