About Arul Anandar College

Arul Anandar College was founded in 1970 as De La Salle College by the late Most Rev. Dr. Justin Diravium, Catholic Archbishop of Madurai, with Pre University Course (PUC) and Under Graduate Programme in Economics and in Philosophy. In 1972, it became a Jesuit Institution and it was re-named as Arul Anandar College with many other Arts and Science programmes with the vision "Integral Development of Rural Students and Empowering them for Social Transformation." The NAAC accredited the college at 'A' Grade in the IV Cycle.

About Department of commerce

The Department of Commerce is one of the pioneers offering B.Com with Computer Applications in Madurai Kamaraj University since the Academic Year 1999. The overwhelming demand from the stakeholders paved way for introducing one more section from the Academic Year 2008-09. The Department of Commerce has grown remarkably since its inception in the year 1999. With 25 years of academic excellence it offers B.Com, B.Com with CA and M.Com Courses. It also conducts a Certificate Course in Tally for the employability of the students.
